CONFERENCE ANNOUNCEMENT AND CALL FOR PAPERS

WCCSJ is holding its Annual Conference on:
Monday 29th and Tuesday 30th April 2024
At Gregynog Hall, nr. Newtown, Powys
<http://www.gregynog.org/>

Call for papers:

- Papers can include works in progress, completed research, policy ideas, theoretical, comparative, practitioner focused or issues for practitioners etc.
- We welcome papers from practitioners, academics, policy-makers and post graduate research students. PG Supervisors, please encourage your doctoral students to present a paper – the conference is very friendly and supportive.
- Any topics are welcome: theoretical; practitioner focused; policy focused; comparative; or others.

We welcome one or both of the following:

- Full conference papers - reports or conference papers on research that has concluded or is near completion; theoretical discussion pieces etc. (about 20 minute papers)
- Shorter pieces maybe on small aspects of a piece of research or on work in its initial/developmental stages – this might be for report or open discussion etc. (5 - 10 minutes);

Please send all abstracts (maximum of 200 words though can be considerably shorter) to admin@wccsj.ac.uk indicating what type of input you would like (full conference paper, short conference paper, poster presentation).

Further details, including details of keynote speakers, booking etc. to follow.

For further details please contact admin@wccsj.ac.uk.

CLOSING DATE FOR PAPERS: Thursday, February 29th, 2024.
